The story about Mrs. Lincola's enticing Lady Lyon's maid into her own service is rendered somewhat doubtful by the fact that Lord Lyons has never been married.

A reporter, in describing a meeting of a total abstinece society, said that they had most harmonious and profitable meetings, and retired from the ball full of "spirits."

"Woman is a delusion, madam !" ex ty young lady. "And man is always hagging some defusion or other," was the quick retort.

been compelled to leave out the name Emery and to insist on the title "STAR." It is proper to remark that this mistake of con founding kinds is almost universal in those counties where our Star Gins were never sold. Nearly all the "Star" Gins sold in Eastern North Carolina last Fall were sold or myself and if any had cause to complain I have yet to hear from them. On the contrary, the testimonials that I received have been anost gratifying and abundant, some going so far as to say they "would rather pay the pric a charged the for "Star" Gin than to use any other kind without charge," We are willing to stand or fall upon the merits of our ow, Gin : but we neither wish to stand nor fall up on the merits or demerits of any other kind.
